All-risk Crop Insurance Meets Good Reception

Alberta's new All-Risk Crop Insurance Plan appears to have generally met with good reception and the minimum objective of 25% participation appears assured in both the Lacombe-Ponoka area and the Vulcan-Nobleford area. In the third test area, in Northern Alberta, the sign-up is just getting underway.

Results to date in the northern third of the Vulcan-Nobleford area indicate a 60% sign-up. Part of the area is still to be covered but it is quite possible that final figures will show a 50% sign-up.

The middle part of the area, centred around Champion, is expected to show a sign-up well above the minimum required and the southern third, Barons-Nobleford, appears likely to achieve a 50% sign-up.

Lacombe-Ponoka has already passed its minimum objective of 25% of farmers or cultivated land area.

The deadline for application is April 30 and in this southern test area the Crop Insurance Corporation representatives are Charles Fulton, Vulcan; Arthur Ulrich, Champion; and Glen Gibb, Barons.

An all-time attendance record of more than 18,000 persons visited the campus of the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology during the Institute's recent 13th Annual Open House.

Among the visitors were students from local and out-of-town High Schools such as those from County Central High School, Vulcan shown here observing a Sea Fury in the Institute's Aeronautical Department.

4-H Club Holds Public Speaking Competition

The Vulcan West-Ensign 4-H Beef Club public speaking competition was held Friday, March 19, in the Brant church hall. Judges were Mrs. Marie Gallagher, Mrs. L. Alexander and J. Lundy Findlay.

Winners were Tom Irwin and Wayne Lucas, who will represent their club at competition in Vulcan on March 27. Alternate winner was Pat Irwin.

After the speakers had been heard, the other 4-H members participated in a program of impromptu speeches, which proved to be very successful and gave the members good experience. Lunch was served to conclude the evening.

J. Seeley Rink Wins Annual 4-H Club 'Spiel'

The Berrywater 4-H Club bonspiel was held February 27. Eight rinks participated, representing most of the district 4-H clubs, and their skips were Randy Steiner, Sandra Oldfield, Bob Cockwill, Floyd Williams, Jim Seeley, Walter Samardien, Sheila Lucas and Charlean Lucas.

In the first event, Jim Seeley's rink defeated Bob Cockwill's rink in the final. Randy Steiner's rink won the second event, defeating the Charlean Lucas rink.

The regular Berrywater 4-H Club meeting was held on March 10 and a calf tour was planned to start at the Neil Giles farm on April 25 at 1:00 p.m.

The public speaking contest was held, with Sandra Oldfield chosen as the winner and Kay Giles and Rhonda Sinclair named as alternates to represent the clubs at the competition in Vulcan. Judges were Bill Shields, Delbert Olsen and Clarence Roth, all of Vulcan.

Jos. Kost Dies, Homesteaded Here

Requiem mass was celebrated at the Church of the Holy Family, Grimshaw, Alta., on March 19, by Rev. Father Wachtel for Joseph Kost who died March 5, following a lengthy illness. Interment was in the Grimshaw Cemetery.

Mr. Kost aged 86 years, was born in Ada, Minnesota, 1879. He homesteaded west of Kirkcaldy, in 1906. In 1930 he moved to Grimshaw where he farmed until his death.

He was a member of the Knights of Columbus.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Louis (Julia) Fath of Calgary; two brothers, Robert of Grimshaw and Vincent of Terrace, B.C.; and nine nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Louis Fath, Mrs. Leslie Shaw, Harold Fath and Ivar Ivarson attended the funeral of Mr. Kost.

On the average, Victoria, B.C. has nine frost-free months a year, from March 1 to Dec. 7.

For 1963-64 Crop Year

Final Wheat Payment Largest In History

The largest final payment on wheat in the history of the Canadian Wheat Board is being distributed to Canadian farmers this month.

The final payment on wheat delivered during the 1963-64 crop year, which ended on July 31, 1964, ranges from 46.893 cents a bushel for No. 1 Northern to 64.222 cents a bushel for Feed Wheat. The total sum being distributed is $271,964,204. The initial payment for No. 1 wheat, basis Lakehead or Pacific Coast, was $150 a bushel.

Total deliveries of all wheat in the 1963-64 crop year, sparked by large sales to Russia, was 563,875,208 bushels, the greatest volume ever handled by the Wheat Board in a single crop year.

The final payments on wheat work out as follows:

	Cents a Bus.
No. 1 Northern	46.893
No. 2 Northern	47.832
No. 3 Northern	49.339
No. 4 Northern	50.076
No. 5 Wheat	60.272
No. 6 Wheat	63.334
Feed Wheat	64.222

Sound Logic

A man should never be ashamed to own he has been in the wrong, which is but saying, in other words, that he is wiser today than he was yesterday.

Doors Close At Old Post Office

The lobby of the old post office is shown above as customers went about their business on Friday, March 19, during the second last day of postal service at this stand. Saturday the doors opened in the new post office on the old Elder Garage location more than a block south and the vacuum left at the former downtown location is more than slightly noticeable. To the youngster looking on above the old post office in just a place to get mail or purchase stamps but to the likes of some of Vulcan's senior citizens such as Mrs. Allan, Mrs. D. Giles and Mrs. Oldfield who made their final visit Friday, it was more.

Because of its more central location the old post office was as much a meeting place for neighbors as it was a business place and while the new premises will quickly become familiar to all, Vulcan will have to grow considerably before the new post office will be considered the hub of downtown shopping.

Annual Meeting

Ron Buehler Golf Club's First Honorary President

R. J. (Ron) Buehler, a mainstay of the Vulcan Golf Club for many years, a several-times past president and one of the men whose efforts were primarily responsible for the present fine course and clubhouse at Vulcan, was unanimously elected as the Vulcan Golf & Country Club's first honorary president at the annual meeting held Wednesday, March 17. One of Vulcan's better golfers, Mr. Buehler has been active on the local golf scene since the 1930's and has been a perennial member of the club's executive committee since those years.

Elected as president was Charles Fulton. He succeeds R. C. R.

Munro, president for the past two years.

Other officers elected were: Glen Gorbous, 1st vice-president; Harold Boutland, 2nd vice-president; Robert Petrosky, secretary; Bert Hanley, treasurer. Directors are Ray Wellman, Norman Pettie and Richard Hammer.

About 30 golfers attended the meeting. The financial statement showed the club to be in an improved financial position despite a slight decrease in membership last year.

A film, Seagram's Gold Cup Canadian Open golf championship, was enjoyed and lunch was served by some of the lady members.

Major Bob Munro and WO2 Jack Price, both recently retired from the Militia, were guests of honor at a stag smoker held in the Armouries Saturday night, March 20, by the Sergeants Mess of "A" Company, The Calgary Highlanders.

These guests from out of town included Walter (Scotty) Sutherland of Edmonton, Gordon Guimond, Hugh McPherson and Fred Standing of Medicine Hat, Ross Best of Red Deer, Howard Brinton of Calgary, Bruce Palk of Wetaskiwin, Frank Burchak of Edson and Leonard Hart of Olds.

Vulcan Wins Jr. Basketball

The South Central Junior Boys Basketball finals were held in Hazel Cameron School on March 20, with teams present from Vulcan, Crowfoot, High River and Carstairs. Vulcan, winner of the A section met Crowfoot, winner of the B, in the final game.

Crowfoot led through the first half but a rally by Vulcan tied the score after three quarters at 39-39. A strong defensive stand held Crowfoot from scoring in the fourth quarter and Vulcan won the game 48-39.

Don Green presented captain Randy Carruthers with the South Central District trophy. He thanked the teams, fans, cheerleaders and coaches, with special thanks to Vulcan coach Mr. Bailey, for making the tournament a success.

Development Ass'n Explained To FUA

A meeting of the County Sub-District of the FUA was held in Vulcan on March 9. The Sub-District director Wilbur Matlock was chairman of the meeting.

Representatives of the UGG, the DA and members of the Service Board as well as representatives of FUA locals in the Sub-District were present. A lengthy discussion was held on proposed projects of this "County team" comprised of members of this group.

L. N. Voisey spoke on the recently formed Southern Alberta Development Association, the reason for its formation and its aims for the future.

It was decided to hold the annual Sub-District convention on Saturday, April 3 at 1:00 p.m. in the Arrowwood hall.

FUA Sub-district Plans Convention

The meeting of the District 12 Junior FUA was held in the High River Community Centre, March 20, 1965. The meeting was called to order by president Wilson Lorie.

The convention which is to be held on July 2 and 3, was discussed. Wilson Lorie reported on the convention held last year.

It was decided to hold the next meeting on August 1 at 2:30 at Little Bow Park. Everyone is asked to bring their own food.

Following the adjournment of the meeting Jim Shearer of Car-mangay gave an interesting report on his trip to New York.

New Business Off To Good Start

Opening day at Noble Blades Sales and Service was held Friday, March 19, and was everything hoped for by the staff of the new Vulcan business.

Old customers and friends to the former Massey-Ferguson business which it has replaced, were back for a look at the rebuilt interior of the office and stock aisles and many new curious visitors availed themselves of the free lunch and a look at the new Noble line of farm equipment.

At the conclusion of the day the staff took time to relax and gather in one spot around a new Minn-Toba tractor cab, for a photo.

ager; John Lowery, service man; M. R. Morrison of the former Massey-Ferguson business; Dave Lebsack, local manager of the company; and Jim Harrington, manager of retail division of Noble Cultivators.

Winners of the various door prizes were Pat Roe, four inch, 12 foot Malco grain auger, compliments of North-West Farm Equipment, Calgary and Noble Blade Sales and Service; Clarence Graff, barometer; Mrs. Clara Tharle, lady's overnight bag.

Some idea of the number of people in attendance through the day is indicated by the use of just under 400 plastic cups for coffee.

A trip to the post office at Vulcan is no longer a "next door" proposition. Last Saturday the doors of the old post office were locked for the last time, furnishes were moved and postmaster Jack Price and his staff began readying things at their new location a block and half south. Above Noisie Robertson as they took care of business from three wickets.

old location are shown postmaster Jack Price and two of the staff, Alice Daniels, foreground and Noisie Robertson as they took care of business from three wickets.

GREEN ACRES

CLARENCE ROTH,

District
Agriculturist

A PROFITABLE COW-CALF OPERATION

Percentage of calves weaned and their weaning weights are the two most important factors in determining whether a rancher will be able to pay his bills in a cow-calf operation.

J. S. Lore, Supervisor of Alberta's Beef Cattle Performance Testing program, says that an 85 per cent calf crop from 100 cows, weaned at 400 pounds and sold at 20c per pound, will bring a gross return of $68 per cow. In other words, each cow will average 340 pounds of calf.

Alberta cost summaries indicate the cost of keeping a cow for a year varies from $60 to $90. Costs include feed, labor, breeding fees, building and machinery repairs and depreciation, taxes, interest, etc.

It is clear from the above figures that a cattleman cannot make a living raising an 85 per cent calf crop of 400 pound calves if his annual costs per cow exceed $68. If these costs cannot be reduced, the alternative is to raise bigger calves without materially increasing costs of keeping the cows.

Mr. Lore recommends the following methods for increasing calf weights.

1. Have enough fertile, active bulls to cover the cows in a six to eight week breeding season.
2. Use only performance or progeny proven bulls.
3. Select female herd replacements with high performance ratings from good milking mothers.
4. Cull out any shy breeders and late calving cows.
5. Pregnancy test in the fall if wintering costs are high.
6. Adjust the breeding season for as early calving as individual conditions permit.
7. Give cows an adequate well balanced ration after calving to ensure early breeding.
8. Adjust the size of the herd to ensure enough pasture throughout the grazing season.

Cross-breeding can increase weaning weights substantially, says Mr. Lore, particularly if the sire is from a larger breed than the cows. With proper management, artificial insemination can be used to shorten the breeding season and to bring good bulls into the herd which the operator might not otherwise be able to afford.

A REMINDER POISON IN THE HOME

Are you still using Carbon Tetrachloride to remove stains from articles of clothing? Did you know that its use for the above has now been discouraged for many years? Here's why—

Carbon tet. is a cleaning chemical so dangerous and toxic that most industrial plants have outlawed it as a grease solvent. In an unventilated ten-foot-square room three thimbefuls will saturate the air to danger point. No matter where used, the vapor is readily absorbed through the skin. Victims have no warning that poisoning is taking place. The danger is greatly increased if alcohol has been consumed recently. In spite of this and even though a minute amount swallowed is fatal, this chemical is readily available for home use and is on sale at most drugstores. When shopping for a cleaning solvent read the label and ask specifically for a product without carbon tet. There are many safe cleaners.

DIAGONAL FABRICS

A diagonal weave is a pronounced weave, either embedded or raised, running in "bias" direction. In fabrics the diagonal lines can run from left to right or right to left. Diagonal fabrics are found in a variety of twill weaves including whipcord, denim, silk surah, gabardine, etc. and may be of wool, silk, cotton, synthetics or blends. Many of the diagonal fabrics you may have already been working with, such as flannel, require no special cutting or matching, because the fibers are woven so closely together as to make the diagonal line indistinguishable. No special patterns are necessary for diagonal weaves. Patterns are placed on the fabric the same way as for plain fabric, except if you have a nap in the diagonal. Be certain to follow the exact instructions for a "with nap" layout chart in the pattern.

Special attention is required when there is a prominent twill weave or rib line. Certain rules should be considered when selecting a style for your fabric. Diagonals are particularly suitable for slim skirts, dresses with slim skirts, straight coats and suits, set-in sleeves or sleeveless. Gored or flared skirts will generally have bias edges which will force the diagonals to run in different directions. Diagonal fabrics can be used for A-line skirts if the diagonal is not too pronounced.

It should never be used where bias seams are involved. Collarless garments with set-in sleeves and few seams are very good. If a collar is to be used it should almost be straight. Jackets with raglan sleeves can be made of a diagonal fabric. Again, a straight collar can be used, never a flat one unless it is cut on the bias. Avoid a garment having long kimono sleeves. Short kimono sleeves can be used as the grain of most garments do not match at the shoulder seams. In general, observe the above rules in selecting a pattern and let the fabric be the fashion!

Report From Parliament Hill

Lawrence E. Kindt M.P.
BILINGUALISM
AND BICULTURALISM

The first report of the Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism (the B & B Commission) has caused a storm over all Canada. Most people would agree that the intentions of the B & B Commission may have been good, but, as a number of people warned at the time it was set up, it would likely lead only to further divisions in the country. As things appear at the moment these prophecies would seem to be correct.

Eastern Star

A social hour was held in the basement where lunch was served.

The name of Mrs. Reta Thomas PM as chaplain in the installing ceremony Jan. 12, was omitted.

Cubs, Scouts, Brownies, Guides Hold Annual Family Night The Second Annual Family Night for Cubs, Scouts, Brownies, Guides and their parents was held on March 17, with approximately 175 people in attendance who enjoyed a buffet-style supper. M.C. for the occasion was Mrs. Julia Ewing.

The toast to the Queen was given by Cub Rex Durell. Mayor Douglas Johnson extended welcome greetings from the town of Carmangay. Scout Robert Clark proposed the toast to the mothers and Mrs. Ruth Shumaker replied. The toast to the fathers was given by Guide Leslie Johnson with a reply from W. Knight.

Visitors welcomed and given recognition were Jervis Brownell, president of the Lions Club which is the sponsoring body; Miss Grace Mary Seebeck who is instructing the Guides in their first aid course; Earl Brinton, school principal who has given co-operation and assistance to the groups; Mr. and Mrs. Bill White for their kindness and help; W. W. Miller for his work in the Scout movement; Mrs. Racelle Ellis, Champion Guide Captain; Farley Sherwood of Barons who is second vice-president of the Southern Alberta Region; Mrs. Graham of Vulcan who was a Guide captain for many years.

Guest speaker was Rick Clark, the executive commissioner of Boy Scouts for the Southern Region. His talk was most inspiring and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Alice Knight, president of the mothers' group presented Mrs. Elaine Parker with a small gift in recognition of her help and leadership with the Brownies. A. Shumaker, chairman of the group committee presented Mrs. Irene Durell with a silver spoon in recognition of her help and leadership with the Cubs. Recognition and thanks on behalf of the parents was given all the leaders by the M.C.

Presentations were made by Mr. Brinton to three Cubs attaining the highest marks in a Fitness Competition. They were: 1st, Collin Greene; 2nd, Rex Durell; 3rd, Doug Fraser. A good effort prize will be presented to all other Cubs at the next regular meeting.

In the Cub part of the program Dennis Greene gave a reading entitled, Cubbing Days, and Doug Krzyzanowski gave a reading called, Ode To Francis the Foul. On behalf of the Cub Pack, Akella presented Mr. Brinton with a novelty award in appreciation of his help.

Mrs. Beulah Hubka, Guide Captain presented her report on activities of the Guides. The highlight of this part of the program was the presentation by Mayor Doug Johnson of the Gold Cord to two Guides, Chris and Linda Hubka. These are the first two girls in Carmangay who have received this award in Guiding. Linda gave a report on the activities of what they did to earn the Gold Cord Honors. Chris graciously thanked the many people involved, including her parents, captain and testers in order that this honor might be theirs.

The Guides then entertained with a medley of delightful songs and the audience was asked to join in on the last number, When Irish Eyes Are Smiling, in honor of the day.

Scoutmaster D. Johnson gave his report on, Scout Doings, recognition was given Queen Scouts Calvin Teskey and David Baldwin. Scout assistant D. Miller presented Queen's Scouts David Hubka and Barry McFarland with the Golden Cord and Bushman's Thong. ALBERTA JUNIOR CITIZEN OF THE YEAR BULLETIN:

Who to nominate for the special Junior Citizen GROUP AWARD (and why)

There are two ways to nominate enterprising youngsters you know for Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year Awards. You can nominate either an individual or a whole group.

Last year, your weekly newspaper editors received an increased number of individual nominations. However, the number of group nominations received was disappointing.

We know that there are scores of enterprising groups of young people around our province who deserve recognition, and adults who wish to see them get it. So please don't hesitate to nominate!

Who to nominate? That's easy! It may be a cub, scout or guide troop, or similar organized group. Or simply two or more youngsters who have performed an act of heroism or initiative on their own. Good citizenship takes endless forms. If you feel that a group of young people between the ages of 6 and 16 years deserves special recognition for any act of merit since August 1964, please give the details to the editor of this newspaper. Remember — all groups nominated will receive a certificate of recognition.

The Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year Program is sponsored by Alberta's investor-owned electric utility companies, with the co-operation of Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors.

IT'S A FACT!

Advertisers should appreciate the fact that the columns of the Vulcan Advocate provide the most economical and effective means for contacting the people of the town, villages and county.

★ THE CIRCULATION

The weekly printings of The Advocate now exceed 2,800 copies. Some copies go to distant points. The remainder are distributed to town and village residents and to every farmer ratepayer in the County of Vulcan — thus putting your advertising message directly into the hands of those people who are your potential customers.

★ COST OF MAILING

It is estimated that each copy is read by three people. So it is reasonably certain that over 8,000 people peruse each issue. If a businessman, or anyone else, undertook to mail even 2,000 addressed circulars the postage cost alone at 3c for not over 2 oz., would be $60.00. Besides that cost there would be the expense of printing, addressing and handling.

★ THE ECONOMICAL PLAN

The advertising rates in The Advocate are most reasonable for the coverage provided. You get full value for your advertising dollar, because you are not paying to have your message heard or read by people living hundreds of miles from your place of business — people from whom you can expect little or no patronage.

The people you wish to contact are the residents of the County of Vulcan area, for they are your potential customers, and no other means of advertising and publicity can provide the complete coverage of this area given by The Vulcan Advocate.

"Serving the County of Vulcan Area"

The Vulcan Advocate

FROM THE LEGISLATURE

Ray Speaker M.L.A.

Budget debate, including the Hon. G. Taylor and Hon. A. Hooke, and discussion on the resolutions concerning a youth seminar, commercial pheasant farms, an approval of a request proposed by the Canadian Parliament to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to provide for the amendment in Canada of the Constitution of Canada continued this past week.

Hon. G. Taylor, Minister of Highways, in his three hour and thirty eight minute debate dealt with his principle in road building, car insurance and the highway network in the Province.

His underlying principle has been a desire to find out what the people want, what the thinking of the people is, and then to the greatest possible degree reflect that thinking in our legislation and in his administration.

In discussing insurance he was concerned with the number of vehicles not insured, our green card program, and the high cost of insurance. The number of uninsured vehicles is on the decrease, and the amount seems to be around 1% or less, he said, and this is occurring under our non-compulsory scheme where the owner must produce a green card or have PL and PD insurance. In the last seven months of 1964 some 4,984 green certificates were sold bringing close to one hundred thousand dollars into the unsatisfied judgment fund. These certificates give the owner no direct returns on an accident, but would pay for damages to others in the accident, and this amount paid must be paid back to the fund either in whole or by installment. Also he continued by saying that anyone not having either a certificate or insurance when driving a motor vehicle is liable now to a minimum fine of $500 for the first offence. With respect to insurance rates the Minister said he plans to call the Insurance Executives of the Insurance Companies of Canada around a table and see what can be done about getting these premiums down to a realistic figure and still maintain the insurance value.

Mr. Taylor reviewed his road program across the Province, reporting that two thirds of the network is blacktop with some 2000 miles that is below standard yet, that municipalities have made application to have another 2000 miles taken into the Provincial highway program, and that we will complete our first freeway in Alberta this coming fall from south of Leduc to a point north of Lacombe with no cross overs and no level access roads.

Hon. Mr. Hooke spoke on the financial situation in Canada today, the affairs of his Department of Municipal Affairs, and the problems of setting up a budget. Mr. Hooke was quite concerned with the deficit financing of the Federal government.

In his department he discussed the work of the Advisory Committee, the Provincial Assessors and Assessments, Local Authorities Board, Improvement Districts, Municipal Inspection Branch, and the financial picture of our Cities, Towns, and Villages. Also he gave a few statistics on the Hutterite situation during 1964. They were: The applications applied for permission to establish new colonies, 4; applications approved, 1; applications rejected, 3; applications for additional land to existing colonies, 12; and the number granted was 12. The total acreage acquired in those applications was just 11,000 acres. The acreage acquired by the new colony was 8,614. The percentage increase over 1963 was 4%. The number of Colonies at the end of the year was 66 and the total acreage held by all the colonies at that date was 500,215. In other words, Hutterite Colonies in the Province take up 781 sections of land. The population was 5,708 as at December 31, 1964, and if we divide that into the acreage we find that it means 88 acres per person.

Mr. Hooke was sure that drawing up a budget was not an easy thing and seemed to be a process somewhat similar to the one used by a Texas Hog Raiser who tries to decide whether his hog is ready for market. This is the quote of the week—Mr. Hooke—"I understand that he had a teetertotter out in the yard balanced evenly. He ties the hog on one end and then he starts putting rocks on the other, and when the two are exactly balanced all he has to do is guess the weight of the rocks then he knows the weight of the hog."

The first practical use of electricity in Canada was in 1882, when Quebec textile mills generated power to light their plants.
